CHILTERN WATERHOUSE

Netflix 'n' still

A selection of our stillest still waters.

For when you just want to relax,
unwind, and gently float
downstream.

Go with the flow

Chiltern Waterhouse is a modern interpretation of an urban oasis.

Brought to life by water sommelier Angus Jung, it's a shop that's purely devoted to water.

If water is life, and variety is its spice, then a large selection of different waters is life.²

We stock over 100 brands sourced from every corner of the globe in our placid little shop in Marylebone.

We are proud to supply rare waters to some of the finest establishments in the capital- from Michelin starred restaurants to "Grande Dame" hotels.

We also put the same obsessive care and attention to detail into curating our "Half Full" subscriptions for our domestic customers. Please feel free to test the waters here:
